Back-To-Work Series
Offered By Altrusans

- Are you thinking of getting a job?
- Each year, more and more women rejoin the nation’s work force.
- The causes are many—perhaps the children are all in school, perhaps the family needs more income, maybe you’ve just gotten tired of bridge, or maybe you’d like a change from housework.
- Whatever the reason, lots of Tucson women are “going back to work.”

- The Altrus Club of Tucson, a classified service club for executive women, will sponsor a series of four meetings to help women make the transition from home to office more easily.
- They will be held at the YWCA at 7:30 p.m. Apr. 30, May 5,
  May 17 and May 11. Anyone interested is welcome to attend, and there is no charge.

- Chairman of the project is Martha Newell, cochairman of the Club’s Vocational Information Committee.
- Altrus members will present information on problems of budgeting, refreshers courses, grooming, psychological adjustments, job interviews and home management.

- Miss Mary Anne Reimann is Miss Newell’s cochairman.
- Other committee members are Miss Jane Gibbs, Dr. Esther Ciosson, Mrs. Paul Coulter, Mrs. Emily Quinn, Mrs. Herbert
  F. Kueker, Mrs. William Milburn, Miss Elizabeth Howsare, Mrs. Mary Simonson and Mrs. Georges De Meester.
