14 On UA Faculty Circulate Petitions For 2 Fired Men

By JOHN ROBERTS

From the University of Arizona faculty members in Tucson are circulating a petition in favor of two of their colleagues who have been fired.

Allan Buehler and dean Richard A. Whitcomb wrote the petitions. The petition was supported by the state University's administrative board and was delivered to the office of Justice and Public Safety.

Crews Encircling Mt. Fagan Blaze

A 1,000-acre fire was burning on the mountain northwest of Tucson today.

The fire, which started in the Chiricahua Mountains north of Tucson, is being burned by the National Forest.

More than 100 acres have been blackened by the fire, according to the National Forest Service.

Part-Time South Tucson Cop Testifies

The incident occurred on the South Tucson street where the man was shot.

The man was identified by police as Jose Garcia, who was shot in the chest by police officers.

A second man was identified by police as Jose Carlos Garcia.

KVOA-TV Gets New Facilities

The station will open its new studio and offices in the new building.

The station will broadcast its new facilities on Monday.