DAVIS WIRE: “...the people with their feet on the ground in Tucson... have good reason to feel more secure than in areas which do not have the benefit of millions and millions of dollars of equipment and manpower on constant alert, as is our Strategic Air Command base at Davis-Monthan field.”

Peter O'Crotty, director of local news on Mutual Broadcasting System's KCUB here, said MBS plans a national radio broadcast, “probably tomorrow,” on the 24-minute taped interview of McDonald which his station aired Tuesday night.

He said a copy of the tape has been shipped to Washington where MBS will make efforts to get rebuttals from the White House and others for inclusion in the broadcast. KCUB, he said, is repeating the McDonald broadcast at 4:35 p.m. today.
