AT PROTEST MEETING

Foolishness On Both Sides,
Says Harvill Of TV Issue

BY JAY BALL

I think there's been a lot of foolishness on both sides," University of Arizona President Richard Harvill said recently as he hastened to add several hours later at a protest meeting of Tucsonians protesting Thursday's action at CBS.

The Columbia Broadcasting System television program is scheduled to begin at 9 p.m. tonight, and what is to be done for survival Tucson, with over 48,000 citizens, was one of several American cities the telecast included.

Harvill's foresaw "a few minutes before the begining of a conference between a small group of Tucsonans and S. T. Salant, president of CBS News, at Cham-

When he saw the group was going to be larger than he had anticipated, the university president presented his displeasure to Joe Wilkins, Channel 13 news director who greeted him, and said, "I was told this was to be very lim-

Harvill was elected some months in the office. It developed that Salant also was in the Mittenrode office. There was no explanation given to me as to the nature of the discussion. Salant is said not to have agreed with Harvill's expression of displeasure at the presence on the tele-

Dr. James E. McDonald, of the University of Arizona, greeted Harvill, and said: "I leave this question to Dr. Harvill to answer." Harvill had not re-

The group meeting developed into a yeast mixer in the room with Salant giving a quarterly report.

Robert F. Dooley, attorney representing Mayor-elect John Dehlie, Dean C. McKinnon, president of the Tucson Board of Realtors Inc., and Robert J. Wensleb, director of the Industrial Development Agency, were among the presenters.

Wollin said he planned to grow more Del Cerro next year.

the new cotton in his Greenville, S.C., laboratory but will be later at the mill at Wilm-

"It's everything nice. It has to be proved out," said Robert T. Stevens, president of the company. "We'll know what we've got in a few months when we have made the fiber.

Sweeves has 54 mills in the country, Secretary of State in the early days of the Enno-

Copyright © 2015 Newspapers.com, All Rights Reserved.